

Preliminary Programme for the iPOPY BioFach Seminar 2010

BioFach 2010, 17th-20th February in Nuremberg
Congress Programme Item submitted and organised by iPOPY
Team

DATE: Saturday, 20th February 2010
TIME: 12:00-14:00
ROOM: Oslo

Organic Food for Youth in Public Settings - Potentials and Challenges
Preliminary Recommendations from a European Study

Moderator: Anne-Kristin Loes, iPOPY Team leader, Bioforsk, NO

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 00:00-00:00 | Welcome by moderator |
| 00:00-00:15 | Opening Address: Healthy food for young Europeans – organic included
N.N., European Commissioner for Agriculture and Rural Development tbc |
| 00:15-00:30 | EU School Fruit Scheme: Integrating public health and agriculture policies
Robert Pederson, EAHC - The European Agriculture and Health Consortium |
| 00:30-00:45 | Bio-City Nuremberg and its schools
Dr. Klemens Gsell, mayor in charge of schools title tbc |
| 00:45-01:00 | iPOPY: Lessons learned from implementing organic into European school meals – policy issues
Niels Heine Kristensen |
| 01:00-01:15 | Providing organic food for millions of Italian pupils daily – how do we make it?
Roberto Spigarolo and Benjamin Nölting |
| 01:15-01:30 | Communicating organic to young people – potentials for learning and developing sustainability
Gun Roos and Minna Mikkola |
| 01:30-01:45 | Organic and healthy – two goals in one go
Chen He and Bent Egberg Mikkelsen |
| 01:45-01:50 | Discussion |
| 01:50 | End of session |